

GraniteCrete Installation Locations

- 1) Heron's Head Park, San Francisco, CA.- San Francisco Port Authority project including a GraniteCrete trail installed for pedestrian and bicycle access to community open space for local residents and an intertidal marsh area. Installed Summer 2012.
- 2) Golden Gate Bridge, Southeast Plaza and Bay Trail, San Francisco, CA.- in honor of the 75th anniversary of the Golden Gate Bridge, GraniteCrete was installed in the Plaza as well as on the Bay Trail pathways providing pedestrian and bicycle access to dramatic viewing points for visitors. Installed Spring 2012.
- 3) Scenic Avenue Beachfront Pathway, Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA. Project consisted of high use pedestrian pathway above the beach along Scenic Avenue. Installed Spring 2005.
- 4) Golden Gate National Recreation Area, Marin Headlands, CA. National Park Service project consisting of several high use pedestrian viewing areas overlooking San Francisco Bay, Conzelman Road & East Street. Installed Spring & Fall 2010.
- 5) Yosemite National Park. 1) Trail installation in Mariposa Grove, near the "Giant Grizzly" Sequoia, installed Fall 2010. 2) Trail installation in Yosemite Valley, Backpackers Bridge area, summer 2011. 3) Tuolumne Meadows Campground car camping and picnic table platforms, installed Fall 2011.
- 6) Class I Bicycle Trail, South Bank Trail Project, Carmel Valley, CA. one mile long bicycle trail x 8' wide. Completed for partners Big Sur Land Trust and Monterey Peninsula Parks District, Monterey, CA. Installed Summer 2011.
- 7) Crissy Field Education Center, Presidio of San Francisco. 1) high use entry plaza with adjacent pathways. Additional pathways completed using reconstituted, existing aggregate. Installed Summer 2009. 2) East Beach picnic table platforms and pathways.
- 8) City of Cupertino, CA, Blackberry Farm, Scenic Circle pathway. pedestrian pathway from Stevens Creek Bridge to Scenic Circle gate entrance. Installed Spring 2010.
- 9) OMC Recreation Center, Seaside, CA. pedestrian pathways throughout project site of new officers facility, Defense Language Institute, Monterey, CA. Installed Summer 2011.
- 10) Monterey College of Law, Seaside, CA. Community Justice Center pedestrian pathways with outdoor client interview areas. Installed Fall 2009.
- 11) Asilomar State Beach, Pacific Grove, CA. Beach pathway access on Sunset Drive, Asilomar State Beach. GraniteCrete used as backfill for beach access steps and pathways to beach. Installed 2007.

- 12) Dennis the Menace Park, Monterey, CA- GraniteCrete was used by the City of Monterey as pedestrian walkway around the perimeter of the parking island, primary parking area for Park access. Note- it is not used in the center of the island, only around the perimeter of the parking island. Installed 2009.
- 13) Muir Beach Overlook, Sausalito, CA- Walks and seating area. Installed December of 2013.
- 14) San Francisco Presidio Sidewalk at Vista Point- Installed January of 2014
- 15) Fort Baker, San Francisco- Yacht Harbor Walks and Seating Area. Installed January of 2015.

For additional information contact:

Geoff Smith
GraniteCrete, Inc.
831.901-9614 cellular
geoffs@GraniteCrete.com